

The South Australia's Waters, an Atlas & Guide, provides the South Australian boating community and those visiting South Australia with an authoritative document capturing the State's entire coastal and inland waterways. Whether you want to go fishing, sailing, holidaying on a boat or swimming, South Australia's Waters will show you how, when and where. This comprehensive atlas presents more than 200 detailed maps of key locations, together with essential tourism, safety and emergency information.

This publication will provide hours of enjoyable reading and prompt many to visit the location described in the Atlas. In addition, the publication is intended to promote marine safety and provide a greater understanding of the aquatic environment available to all South Australians.

The retail price of the Atlas is $69.95 plus postage and handling of $20.05. To order your copy now, please fill in the details below and send with your cheque or money order to:
